Restrictions

This account has a big story of being restricted in the span of one year (2020-2021). First time I was restricted after my account got hacked, second time I got restricted because I've sent ~20,000 messages saying "Happy early Christmas" in December of 2020 (you can read about it h e r e)

TL;DR: osu!support is toxic, can't help and ignores me now, when I want to make my messages page work again.

After that I lost my ability to access my DMs on both lazer and osu-web, I've went all in trying to get my access to DMs back but all my prayers were ignored for more than half a year. Then 13 of Aug, 2021 I decided to test if they purposefully ignore me and gave out them that I have more than 5 accounts, on one of which I actually had cheated scores. I didn't had to wait long and ~30 minutes later I got response from osu!support saying that all my alts are banned, but main stays. (lol what I admitted to cheating and owning multiple accs, and I have history of abusing API, yet I am left alive, what?) Thanks to that, now I know that I was purposefully ignored for more than half a year. Good job, support!

Mapping

I had over 20 maps submitted on my account, now they all are gone :D
My GDs are still there though, I favorite them just not to forget about them, so check out my favorites. (well not all now)
I don't map anymore.

Breaks

1. 2015 - Jan 2019
2. Nov 2020 - Feb 2021
3. Apr 2021 - Jun 2021 (exl. some std & ctb plays j4f)
4. 16 Jul 2021 - ???

Promise (lmao)

I promised that I will farm to 5000pp even though I don't like this game anymore if Elden Ring gets shown on either SGF or E3 2021. It did. I farmed to 5000pp. Rebalance dragged me back to 4890 but I wont farm back, fuck it.

Hey, this is an end to my journey in this game

The time has come. It was a long journey, starting from me, playing Easy maps of MLP songs in 2015, to coming back in 2019, buying tablet half a year later and farming to 3000pp in less than a year. I've found a lot of interesting people in this game (probably thanks to both one tournament and crimean community). This message is not for anyone, I don't even know why I write this, maybe I just want to say thank you to everyone who was where with me, for me, and for whom I was there too.

Anyway, that got a bit sad, so I want to say Last Goodbye <sup>pun intended</sup> to everyone who I adore.

Now... Let's go. Thanks,

- ♥ Neonishe & SanyaTyan & other person I don't know username of, I'll just say Olya, for introducing me to the game back in 2015!
- ♥ ShadowSoulll, for bringing me back to this game in 2018, keeping me company, introducing me to the mapping and modding my shitty maps!
- ♥ V1kman for modding my shitty maps!
- ♥ Peppy & osu!team for 1 year of supporter and 15 bucks
- ♥ Orange_ for hosting OMT, where I met almost all the people I know from osu! now!
- ♥ YesImSatan for being cool and linking me damn maps when I asked them ;w;
- ♥ GaryWombo, well you suck, but thanks anyway, for being cool too!
- ♥ Juztan, for being cool and fun person lmfao
- ♥ Youtool2, for being weird
- ♥ Rock-on, for being cool and reliable!
- ♥ Lardon, dardolond, ladron, darnold, Donald trump, for being cool, fun and reliable
- ♥ Taevas, for being cool, reliable and interesting person
- ♥ Kvictor, just thanks

Yo it sounds like I am never talking with them anymore and abandoning them, but nah it's just my memorial. If anything for whatever I thanked them is not limited to them, they're all cool. Also this list is not limited to these people I just don't remember everyone lmfao ;w;

This is the end of my journey in osu!... for now? I won't say I won't come back, but won't say I will either. This game has burned out for me. Goodbye.
